

Buyer shall have the option to defer payments for invoices, and/or milestone payments due during the months of August, September and October and make the payments in November. In consideration for any such deferral, Buyer will compensate Seller by either advancing other payments due Seller or paying interest at a rate to be determined.